

To Whom it May Concern,

This letter is my personal recommendation for Ivan Cash. I have been working with Ivan for 6 months. In that time, Ivan has impressed me with his talent, insight and work ethic. Ivan approaches challenges with equal amounts of interest in the project and attention to detail. Whether it is an open creative exploration of an idea or a tedious dissection of an Excel spreadsheet, Ivan puts his all into every project. I felt so comfortable with Ivan's skills after working with him for a few months that I willingly left him in charge of two large print design projects while I was away on a work trip. During that time, he interfaced with the client, managed the incoming changes, and delivered these changes back to the client in a timely and professional manner.

In addition to being a great worker who delivers on assigned tasks, Ivan has added humor, insight and thoughtfulness to our studio environment. I know he will be as valuable an asset to your organization as he has been at my studio.
